Heads, Hearts & Hands for Christ in Service & Celebration

Volume 37, Issue 5

Snow & Sensibility!

Due to last week's ice storm, for safety reasons, Sunday Service was cancelled. This caused some confusion and some discomfort for our congregation and we thought we would explain our rationale in coming to that decision. Because we were dealing with ice and not snow we could not have the parking lot to the church plowed. Several years ago a church member fell and broke a bone walking on the parking lot in the same conditions as last week. Because of that incident, we thought it would be wise to not have folks come out and take a chance on injuring themselves.

Thanks to Annie Fulkerson, who was determined that we would worship together as a family, who put together our virtual service and made sure that it was available online so that we could still worship.

Please know that the right people are being put in place to make sure we don't have to cancel service again whether it be in person or online.

We deeply apologize to you, our congregation, for the inconvenience.

Communion will be served this

SNOW KISSES

If you go out when it's snowing
And look up at the sky,
You'll feel
lots of icy kisses
As the snowflakes flutter by.
