Heads, Hearts & Hands for Christ in Service & Celebration

Volume 38, Issue 20

June 21, 2022

I'm a big fan of stand-up comedy and I have a lot of admiration for those who are brave enough to do it. That's because it isn't easy. For one, despite everyone thinking they are funny, most of us aren't. Plus we don't even get to decide if we are funny or not, that's up to the audience. In response to the subjective nature of craft, comedians have come up with all sorts of techniques to invoke humor. My personal favorite is the callback. A callback is when a comedian sets a joke up at the beginning of the show, then moves on without finishing it and without the audience noticing only to deliver the punchline at the end. In the book of John, Jesus makes a powerful callback that reached back over 1000 years before His birth. A callback that solidified the eternal nature of Christ, the Alpha and Omega. Grace has always been ours for the taking and we see that in our scripture reading this week (Numbers 21:1-12). In preparation for this Sunday, I encourage you all to study John 3:10-18 as we get ready to explore the infinite compassion of God.

Blessings,
Trey
