Heads, Hearts & Hands for Christ in Service & Celebration

Volume 38, Issue 31

September 27, 2022

Whatever is foreseen in joy
 Must be lived out from day to day.
 Vision held open in the dark
 By our ten thousand days of work.
 Harvest will fill the barn; for that
 The hand must ache, the face must sweat.
 And yet no leaf or grain is filled
 By work of ours; the field is tilled
 And left to grace. That we may reap,
 Great work is done while we're asleep.
 When we work well, a Sabbath mood
 Rests on our day, and finds it good. ("Whatever is Foreseen in Joy" by Wendell Berry)

Hey friends, as we enter into this fall season, I hope that these words of Wendell Berry will be a blessing to you. Such a good writer to read more from. This week, may you hold close that which God uses to rekindle your faith, renew your imagination, and open your story. Glad to share in this good work and journey on with you!

Joy and courage, Ryan

Please join the Eastminster elders in welcoming, Marian LaChance, who joined the congregation as a member Sunday September 25 by reaffirmation of faith.

Celebrating Sabbath is a Bible study created by the PC(USA).

This year's study is a call for us to rest, enjoy, and learn to take delight in the Sabbath. Barb Kuykendall is willing to facilitate this study and is open to any or all options below.
