

Hey friends, very thankful for Trey and Annie Fulkerson! Both stepped up for New Years Sunday on very, very short notice. Many shared how meaningful the messages & service was focusing on the presence of God in the midst of an anxious world. I gives thanks with you and for the continued blessing here of the staff and active involvement of so many folks with EPC! Missed being here with all of you that Sunday. I came down with a bad case of vertigo that Friday night. Of all things, brought on by craning my head watching an interview on my phone while using our home gym. Now laughing at myself, again, and knowing what not do next time. Glad to be well, back on my feet, and able to join you all in what's happening in January. So many good invitations to share in worshiping God and following Jesus together. May the invites, opportunities, and the new sermon series beginning this Sunday, "Following Jesus" be a blessing to you!

Joy and courage,
 Ryan

THANK YOU TO MEL ELLSPERMAN & COREY FRITZ

A big and warm thank you to Mel Ellsperman who has served as our Head Usher for 22 years. Mel has turned his duties over to Corey Fritz who said "Mel has big shoes to fill!" Thank you Mel for being at Eastminster every Sunday, assuring that everything is ready to go for our Worship service and that our Acolyte knows exactly what to do. Thank you to Corey for stepping into the roll of Head Usher, he too, will assure that our Sunday services go on as planned.

Sanctuary Work

For the next three weeks we will have painting and repairs made to our Sanctuary ceiling and windows. Please be mindful that there may be equipment that has to be left in the Sanctuary until the work is complete. Thank you for your understanding as we continue to keep our building in good shape for generations to come!
