Heads, Hearts & Hands for Christ in Service & Celebration

The Resurrection By M.S. Lowndes

We hold so close to our hearts
The cross where Jesus died,
But so much more than the blood-stained cross
Is that Jesus came back to life.

The stone's been rolled away;
The tomb lay open and bare -
They looked for him, and then the Angel said that he is no longer here.

Oh what joy they must have felt
To see Him just once more,
To eat with Him, to drink with Him,
To receive Him back as Lord.

So much did He accomplish
Through His death upon the cross
And in His rising from the dead,
He reconciled us back to God.

Nothing else could bridge the gap
That sin had wrenched apart -
Now we can freely go to God
And receive Christ in our hearts.

Holy Week

I always like to tell my students that whatever happens at the end of Act I, the opposite will happen in Act II. The end of Lent is structured in a similar way. On Palm Sunday, we see the throngs of people welcoming Jesus into Jerusalem. The atmosphere is triumphant and expectant. We expect something great is just around the corner. By Maundy Thursday and Good Friday, we are in a completely different place. The crowds shouting, "Hosanna" have been replaced by the mob crying, "Crucify him!"

Musically, we can make these connections as well. After nearly forty days of music reflecting on repentance and God's grace, the mood shifts dramatically on Palm Sunday. We recreate the hosannas with our hymns and anthems. We invite the children to process with palms. There is a bit of excitement and pageantry built into the music. As our choir anthem proclaims, "Come join the procession of joyous refrains - the son of King David is coming to reign," we gladly take our place in the crowds of Jerusalem. We are at the end of Act I. If you want to see what happens in Act II, I encourage you to come to our Maundy Thursday service at 7 p.m. on April 6. — Alanna Keenan, Director of Music
