

The music in summer worship continues in the year-round excellence of lifting our hearts in praise to God. Thank you, Alana, Ryan Luttrull, and choir! We can enjoy so much wonderful special music, all a part of worship, to center our lives on God, who is worthy of all glory and praise.

Friends, so good to see so many of you able to join in worship. This Sunday, we continue in Revelation, exploring chapter 7 verses 9 -17.

Weary first century congregations of Revelation knew all too well what it means to be overwhelmed with personal and family problems, not to mention deeply troubling global crises. Unfortunately, Revelation has tragically been used to frighten so many.

I hope in this next chapter, chapter 7, and in this series you will encounter the incredible enduring presence of encouragement, a new sense of the power of worship and story that the message was meant to awaken and strengthen.

Thank you for the reflections on Revelation that you have been sharing, and even more, for the faith and love that you are living. We learn together!

May you be blessed to catch up with a friend this week who can make you laugh so hard you cry. May no trouble, worry, or fear grow greater than your life in prayer, the courage from Christ, and our growing community in love.

Let us worship God!

Grace and courage,

Ryan

Presbyterians and youth who enjoy camping and love spending time with friends have an opportunity during 2024 to work at Camp Burnamwood to help people who are living in severe poverty.

Camp Burnamwood is on a 500-acre stretch of land nestled between the foothills of Central Appalachia and the Kentucky Bluegrass. Established in 1958, it's the official camp and conference center of the Presbytery of Transylvania. In spring 2012, the state of Kentucky recognized Burnamwood as a Registered Natural Area, deeming it a "significant component of Kentucky's natural heritage."

Generally, groups use their time either to hold a retreat or to perform home improvements, from a new roof to the installation of a wheelchair ramp. The work is done on behalf of eastern Kentucky residents who can't afford to hire a contractor.

We are now required to turn in names of those who will be going. If you are planning on attending, please fill out the sign up sheet in the Narthex or see Donna Cooke to get registered.

If you are unable to come up with the deposit or cost of the trip, scholarships are available!

Please pray for the following individuals:

Jane Williams, Walt Lowe, Ann Meyers, Barbara Moran, Betty Sue Foster, Tatum Turpin, Sandra Hess, Carolyn Stitt, Melissa McGuire, Marilyn Ellsperman, Beth Bailey, Sharon Glover, Keith Adcock, Maria Keller, and Dan Keenan.

If you have a prayer request or wish to be removed from the list, please contact the church office.
