Heads, Hearts & Hands for Christ in Service & Celebration

Volume 40 Issue 26

August 12, 2024

FROM THE PASTOR

Have you heard this one: “God helps those who help themselves”?

It has been traced back to Ben Franklin, who likely didn’t originate the saying.

Digging deeper into the living story and reality of the restorative mission of God, Ezra-Nehemiah (this Sunday we will explore: Ezra 4:1-5; 5:1-5) offers a much fuller picture of the good news of the very present help of God and what that help can empower folks to do.

Thankfully, the help of God is for everyone, truly good news for us all, available far beyond Ben or my own understanding.

Thank you, church, for the many expressions of freely given, generous, and empowering help that you share!

May God stir the spirit and support that is restorative to your soul this week, and may all that we share in worshiping God together give all glory to God, and deepen loving service in Christ with even the smallest, steady steps each day following Him into the world.

The littlest things that you do for Him each day and each week can make a big difference. Keep it up!

Let us worship God!

Grace and courage,

Ryan
