MISSION RECAP

We give thanks that youth and adults were able to share in three impactful local mission projects these past few days:

leading a fun afternoon of games at Heritage Woods Assisted Living, cooking with compassion at the Ronald McDonald House, and sharing a night of caring support with the YWCA.

Youth and adults packed the kitchen with hands in service at the Ronald McDonald House on Washington Avenue with enough food to also be shared for all the families at the Gateway location.

It was truly a blessing to join in good work with the YWCA and learn more about their vital mission empowering youth and women with shelter, and recovery.

Youth and adults brought energy and love preparing dozens of welcome bags with handwritten notes of support and baking up some delicious looking cupcakes in the YWCA's Caring Kitchen.

We look forward to sharing more in mission.
Let's go forth to love God and love neighbor!
