A Loving Goodbye to EPW

A final luncheon for EPW was attended by twenty-four ladies and Pastor Ryan on Wednesday, October 1. A big "Thank You" from Susan Shelton goes out to the officers of EPW: Carol Palmer, Marilyn Ellsperman, Carol Oglesby, Bonnie Noe, and the Ladies of EPC for their fellowship and attendance during her term as Moderator of EPW.

CONNECTING WITH COMPASSION

Sean Gladding, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Danville, Kentucky, sends sincere apologies to all who tried and were unable to view the celebration of life for Ken Copp.

Unfortunately, the church's WIFI went down right before service. Sean shares that the service was beautiful and a very meaningful tribute to Ken's life.

Thank you for the continued blessings, remembrances, prayers you are sharing with Ken's wife, Lynn, and all the ways you reach out to one another and to our neighbors with love.

Beloved,
let us love one another,
because love is from God;
everyone who loves is born
of God and knows God.
Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.
—1 John 4:7-8 (NRSV)

"Jesus answered,
'If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, "Uproot yourself and plant yourself in the sea," and it would obey you.'"

A printed copy of the most current directory is in the Narthex, and the welcome center in the Gallery. We hope that you will review it. If your info requires no change, please initial it. If changes or additions are needed, we would appreciate you writing that info in. Please make all changes by October 19. Let's keep sharing good ways of connecting!

THANK YOU FROM STARFISH

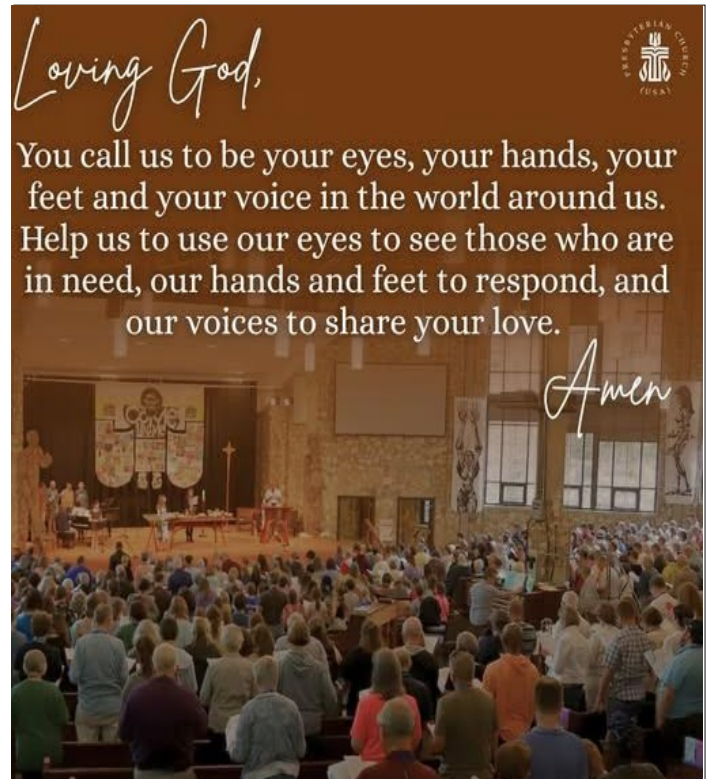

Thank you for your incredible generosity! Your gifts of food, clothing, money, and supplies of all kinds have replenished our shelves and is allowing us to continue to assist our friends, family, and neighbors with food and other needs. Every week, God has given us even more families we can help, and you are making it possible. You are truly a blessing, and we cannot thank you enough.
